BREADCARE!

www.facebook.com/GreatHarvestBreadAlbuquerqueNM

Don't put the bread in the refrigerator

You should store our bread on the kitchen counter. It's ok to freeze loaves; just ask for an extra bag and double bag the loaves to protect them. (Many people freeze half a loaf and leave the other half on the counter.)

Home Style Breads

Most of our breads will stay fresh for 5-7 days. Cheese breads will last 4-5 days or freeze them.

Artisan Style Breads

Put our Artisan style Loaves in a plastic bag after the first day. These breads should be eaten within three days or frozen. Baguettes are one day breads.
